Rocheleau-Freeman Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rocheleau were at Richmond, Monday, to attend the wedding of their son, Guy Rocheleau. The Burlington Free Press describes the wedding as follows:

"A very pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emory L. Freeman, when their youngest daughter, Pearl Ellis, was united in marriage to Guy Rocheleau of Burlington, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Frances Kimball. The wedding music was played by Miss Zoe Towers. The ribbon bearers were Frances Freeman, cousin of the bride, and Master Richard Hall, nephew of the bride, and Doris Freeman was flower girl. The maid of honor was Miss Blanche Kibling of Lebanon, N. H., and Charles A. Davis of Burlington was best man. The bride's gown was of white organdie trimmed with Irish point lace and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses. After the ceremony refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served by the girl friends of the bride. The bride, one of the popular young ladies of this town, for the past year has been employed as stenographer for the Spear-Martin company of Burlington. The groom is employed at the Park Drug store in Burlington. They were the recipients of many costly gifts. They left in an automobile mid showers of rice for a honeymoon, after which they will reside in Burlington."
